

General Mackensen On Defensive In Rumania GREECE MAKES PROPOSALS TO ENTENTE

GENERAL STRIKE IN NEW YORK IS CALLED FOR WEDNESDAY

THE OUTSKIRTS OF COMBLES REACHED BY FRENCH TROOPS

London, Sept. 23.—The Russians and Rumanians who were yesterday reported in retreat in the Rumanian province of Dobruja are again on the offensive, according to the Berlin official report of today. Field Marshal Von Mackensen's forces were subjected to attacks on both flanks of the front running from the Danube to the Black Sea, but the assailants failed to make headway, the German statement declares.

Unconfirmed reports through Rome tell of a situation far more favorable to the entente forces in Dobruja, one account declaring that Von Mackensen's retreat is certain and that the Danube fortress of Silistra has been abandoned by the Germans and Bulgarians.

On the front in Russia the only pronounced activity is reported by Petrograd in the Lake Oronzon region. Prolonged gas attacks by the Germans are said to have been repulsed. Berlin reports the defeat of strong Russian attacks near Korynitsa, in Volhynia.

Continued efforts by the British to advance north of the Albert-Bapaume road on the Somme front are meeting with success, according to the British war office. The capture of a strongly fortified German trench system along a front of approximately half a mile east of Courcellette is announced. The Germans were beaten off in a violent attack near Monquet Farm in this region. Berlin denies that the British were successful in the Courcellette attacks.

London, Sept. 23.—Apparently the French-British forces on the Somme are preparing to close their grip on Combles, the important town on the Albert-Peronne railway six miles northwest of Peronne, which has been virtually pocketed by the allies in their recent operations.

Last night the French war office reported the capture of a small fortified position and some trench sections close to Combles and today it announces that French patrols have penetrated still nearer the edge of the town bringing back prisoners. Raiding operations such as these are commonly preludes to more comprehensive and forceful movements.

On the French front south of the Somme the artillery is active, probably in preparation for further assaults.

Airmen on both British and French section of the line have been busy. Yesterday French aviators took part in 56 aerial engagements, in which four German airships were shot down. British naval aeroplanes have raided important German aviation stations in Belgium, inflicting notable damage upon aerodromes at St. Denis Westrem, according to the British official report.

A French aviator has visited the Rhine region and dropped bombs in the Palatinat and also at Mannheim, where Paris reports large fires and several explosions were caused.

WILSON TO ADDRESS THE BUSINESS MEN

HARVARD STUDENT ARRESTED WITH TRAMPS

Sandusky, O., Sept. 23.—Richard Varnum, 22, Harvard student, was arrested with four tramps at Bogarts, on a train jumping charge. He was beating his way to Cambridge. He wired to a class mate who sent him money for his release.

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 23.—President Wilson's program today called for the first of a series of speeches he plans to deliver at Shadow Lawn in his "poreh campaigns" for re-election. He planned to address a large delegation of New Jersey business men on the attitude of his administration towards American business.

The general public was to be admitted and several thousand people are expected to be present. The president has already promised to go to Indianapolis October 12, but no arrangements have been made yet for filling his time between the two visits.

A New Record For U. S. Steel

New York, Sept. 23.—For a week-end market, today's two-hour session of the stock exchange was probably without parallel. Trading in the first hour amounted to more than half a million shares, with no diminution of activity with the approach of the close.

There were numerous speculative features but all were eclipsed by the further meteoric rise in United States Steel, which touched 117½ a new record, shortly after 11 o'clock.

Other leaders rose to highest prices in their history, notably coppers. Dealing embraced every branch of the list.

One More Saloon

Gallipolis, O., Sept. 23.—As a result of an increase in population, the State Liquor License Board has notified Pomeroy city officials that they are entitled to one more saloon. The city will now have a brewery and nine saloons.

"PRISON DEMON" GIVEN RELEASE

Columbus, O., Sept. 23.—Otis M. Hurley, 40, penitentiary prisoner, who for years was known as the "prison demon", and who for a time was locked in a special cage away from other prisoners to prevent him from doing harm to guards or prisoners, was released from the prison today after completing his fourth sentence of five years for horse stealing.

Hurley returned to his old home in Xenia, where he has announced he will begin all over again.

SHERIFF SWEPTSON PLACED ON TRIAL

Columbus, Sept. 23.—Federal Judge John E. Sater permitted only 4 out of 21 character witnesses subpoenaed from Chillicothe to testify for Sheriff Sweptson. T. Sweptson of Ross county, today, when Sweptson was placed on trial for contempt of court in permitting a federal prisoner liberty outside the jail. Among the witnesses rejected were bankers and prominent business men of Chillicothe.

United States Deputy Marshal Clarence Wright was the principal witness at the morning session. He denied that he had told Sheriff Sweptson that he had instructions to see that the prisoner, Charles T. Dye, saloon keeper, convicted of violating the federal liquor laws, should be given liberties because he was a "good fellow" and had been unjustly convicted, as charged by the sheriff in a formal answer filed with the court this week.

According to information reaching the federal authorities,

Dye was permitted to leave the jail and go to nearby towns in an automobile. Sheriff Sweptson's answer stated that if such trips had been made, they had been without his knowledge or authority.

Judge Sater last week sentenced Sheriff Sweptson to 60 days in the Delaware county jail, but revoked the sentence to permit the sheriff to present witnesses.

EARTHQUAKE IS RECORDED

ROBBED OF $1,600, HIS LIFE'S SAVINGS

Chicago, Sept. 23.—Joseph Fertile, of Toledo, O., reported to the police that he was robbed of $1,600 on a passenger train today by a man who represented himself as an "official of the road". The robbery occurred as the train was leaving the station. Fertile said this man asked him to show his ticket and then asked for his money, saying, "You are not safe with it in your clothes. The road will be responsible for it."

Fertile, who was enroute to Salt Lake City to work, complied with the stranger's request. The money stolen represented his life's savings.

MUTINY ON GREEK SHIP

London, Sept. 23.—A despatch to the Mail from Athens says the Greek armored cruiser Georgio Averof, lying off the Arsenal on the island of Salamis near Piræus, is preparing to join the revolutionary movement at Saloniki. The government has ordered the remainder of the fleet to prevent the Georgio Averof from reaching Saloniki.

London, Sept. 23.—Athens is filled with rumors that three hundred men of the crew of the cruiser Averof have mutinied, according to a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. The report says that the remainder of the crew and marines were sent away in boats. Other ships of the fleet are said to have quelled the mutiny.

The Averof is an armored cruiser built in March, 1910. She carries a crew of 550 men.

KARNIVAL WEATHER

Washington, D. C., Sept. 23.—Weather predictions for the week beginning Sunday, Sept. 24, issued by the weather bureau today included:

Washington, D. C., Sept. 23.—The Department of Agriculture today issued a warning to dealers against interstate shipments of oysters which are polluted or soaked to increase their bulk. Prosecutions will be pressed against violators of the law forbidding adulteration of oysters, it was announced.

Bombards German Bases

Paris, Sept. 23.—Flying nearly 100 miles beyond the German border, Flight Warrent Officer Baron last night bombarded the important work at Ludwigshafen, in the Palatinat on the Rhine and at Mannheim across the river from Ludwigshafen. At Kentucky Fair

150 PASSENGERS RESCUED FROM A STRANDED VESSEL

Portland, Me., Sept. 23.—The Eastern Steamship Corporation's steamer Bay State, bound from Boston for Portland, went ashore of Hallowell Rock, just off the tip of Cape Elizabeth during a heavy fog early today. The 150 passengers were taken off in lifeboats and dories. The steamer lies high and dry in a dangerous position.

SECURING JURY IN ELECTION FRAUD CASES

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 23.—Hearing of the cases against Greenway Hatfield, brother of Governor Henry Hatfield, and 11 others, indicted for conspiracy to defraud in the congressional election of 1914, in War Eagle precinct of the Fifth West Virginia congressional district, will be begun as soon as the jury is completed. Lester and Blankenship pleaded guilty at a former term of court and are being held as state witnesses.

Mrs. Henderson Hutchinson and children, Third street, have gone to Pomeroy, where Mrs. Henderson will look after Capt. George Henderson and Mrs. Lou Henderson, brother and mother of Mr. Henderson. They are critically ill.

THREE QUARTER MILLION WORKERS ARE INVOLVED

New York, Sept. 23.—Trade unions in this city and Westchester county today began to vote on the question of ratifying the action of eighty delegates who yesterday called for a "general suspension of work" next Wednesday morning. The labor chiefs appealed to all union wage earners to stay at home until the traction companies make it possible for them to ride in the street cars without offense to their union allegiance.

It is asserted that no such action heretofore has been taken by the trades unions of this city and country, nor has a strike involving so many trades ever been called. Its maximum effect would call from work 750,000 men and women.

Leaders of the movement refrain from calling it a sympathetic strike. They declare that many of the unions already have voted to ratify their recommendation and that any union man who does not quit work Wednesday will be denounced as a traitor.

It is pointed out that Wednesday is the beginning of an important Jewish holiday when many workers ordinarily would stay at home.

The call for a cessation of work is based on the grievance that men of union affiliations cannot ride to their employment except in cars manned by non-union conductors or motormen and under the protection of the police. Statements issued by the leaders indicate that they are incensed by Mayor Mitchell's warning that he stood ready to use the military power to restrain violence and that they consider the city to be dominated by the traction interests.

To reinforce the police, Commissioner Woods has instructed the captains to select ten civilians in each precinct to be sworn in as special policemen. This would add about 900 men to the department.

FRENCH SUB IS SUNK

Berlin, Sept. 23.—(Wireless to Bayville, N. Y.)—The French submarine Foucault has been sunk in the southern Adriatic by bombs dropped from Austro-Hungarian naval aeroplanes, the Austrian admiralty announced today.

The entire crew of 29 men were rescued and made prisoners.

The admiralty statement reads: "An Austro-Hungarian naval aeroplane in the southern Adriatic sunk by means of bombs the French submarine Foucault. The aeroplane's pilot was Lieutenant Oclezeny and the observer was Lieutenant Von Klimburg."

"The entire crew of the submarine, comprising two officers and 17 men, many of whom were in a drowning condition, were rescued and made prisoners by the naval aeroplane mentioned and by another piloted by Lieutenant Kamjever, with Cadet Severn as observer."

"Half an hour later the imprisoned crew was taken over by a torpedo boat while the two officers were transported to land on naval aeroplanes."

Prohibition Party To Get On The Ballot

Columbus, O., Sept. 23.—An announcement was made at the secretary of state's office today that the Prohibition party now has enough petitions on file to entitle it to a place on the official ballot at the November election. Enough belated petitions were received today to give the required number.

SLAIN BY BOOTLEGGERS

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 23.—George Church, town marshal at Barboursville, 10 miles east of here, and formerly police lieutenant in Huntington, was shot and instantly killed today, presumably by bootleggers, whom he attempted to arrest. Three suspects taken from trains, are under arrest here.

Church left home at six o'clock this morning. His body was found an hour later in a patch of weeds below town. Residents on hearing four shots, instituted a search, resulting in the find.

Frank Jackson, negro, of Lynchburg, Va., one of those under arrest, has told a story which police say will result in the taking of the murderers within a few hours.

If I can just keep this line o' dope up all through next week I'll be th' swellest weather man who ever sat on th' job. Just take it for granted I'm gonna do my "darndest." Bill Hicks says he noticed th' fog goin' up th' other mornin' and wants t' know if it was on account o' th' war. Here's for tomorrow:
Ohio—Fair tonight and Sunday. Cooler in east and probable light frosts in west and central portions tonight. Rising temperature Sunday.
Kentucky—Fair tonight and probably Sunday. Rising temperature Sunday.
West Virginia—Fair tonight and Sunday. Cooler tonight.

Sheppard represents Charles Martin.

Mrs. Adelaide Hess Blake, widow of the late T. B. Blake, died Friday evening at 8:40 o'clock at her home, 503 Campbell avenue. She had been in poor health the past six months but her death came as a great shock to all.

Mrs. Blake was born in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, June 5th, 1837 and was married to Thos. B. Blake of Hamilton to whom six children were born, five surviving: Alice Blake, Mrs. R. G. Jattie Henderson of No. 1015 Front street, who was robbed of her husband, the late John Henderson on March 15 and who Friday evening experienced the unusual ordeal of seeing a daughter-in-law and a grand child pass away within two hours.

Although she had been suffering with Bright's disease for the past six months, Mrs. Cynthia Henderson, aged 25, managed to attend to her household duties, but Friday afternoon developed a sinking spell and died at the above home about 5 o'clock. Two hours later Charles, the 4-month-old baby son of John and Lily Henderson-Paul, of No. 107 Gay street, died suddenly after a week's illness with pneumonia.

Mrs. Henderson was the wife of James Henderson, a steel-worker, whom she married six years ago, and besides him leaves an only son, Carl, aged 3 years. She was a daughter of the late Walker Harris and is survived by her widowed mother, Mrs. Martha Harris, of Fruit street, of Pittsburgh and Union streets, and three sisters, Mrs. Susie Deleher, of Second street; Mrs. Catherine Nelson, of John street, and Mrs. Rosa Salzer, of Fruit street. She was a member of the First Christian church. The funeral will take place Monday morning.

Mrs. Paul was standing beside a baby buggy watching her sick child when he suddenly expired. Mr. Paul is an employe of the Excelsior Shoe Company. There is one surviving child in the family, Dorothy, aged 3 years. The baby's funeral will take place from the home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Charles Oakley will officiate at both funerals.

Relative Located

Police Chief Henry Clark was called to the N. & W. station Saturday noon to help locate the father in law and mother in law of Mrs. Mary Warren and two year old baby who arrived on the N. & W. train from Cincinnati at 11:20 a. m. The young woman expected someone at the train to meet her but when no one put in their appearance the police were appealed to. In a short time Chief Clark located Mr. and Mrs. Albert Warren of Eleventh and Waller streets who were at the train expecting their relative. They saw the young woman and baby but as they had never met her did not think she was the relative they were watching for. Mrs. Warren's husband is in the United States army and in training at Plattsburg. Mrs. Warren who is a Portuguese came all the way from California with her baby to make her home with her husband's relatives while he is in the army.

The Movies

Mary Pickford At Lyric Monday. Famous Players Star Incomparable In Powerful Drama, "The Eternal Grind."

It seems almost unbelievable since her previous performances upon the screen time after time, but Mary Pickford's appearance in the Famous Players-Paramount picture, "The Eternal Grind," which is the feature at the Lyric for Monday, will unquestionably be pronounced her greatest endeavor by public and critics alike. When Miss Pickford starred in

"The Foundling" it was almost universally declared to be her finest impersonation. When she followed that with "Poor Little Peppina" that was hailed as the greatest of all.

But in both of these characterizations Miss Pickford appeared as a victim of circumstances—as an immature child whom fate had fastened upon as a sort of football to be kicked about at will. In these roles she won our sympathy. In "The Eternal Grind" Miss Pickford is a very mature young lady—prematurely ripened by hard work in the factory—whose indomitable will, fearlessness, resolution, ingenuity and forceful personality compel our admiration as well as our sympathy. It is this new note of power which Miss Pickford strikes in coping with the great crisis which she faces that will win for "The Eternal Grind" the verdict of "the greatest she has ever done."

small thing for any woman to do what you have worked out in your own mind. Also, it might not meet with just the kind of success you are expecting. Why is it that mothers are so often jealous of their sons' choice? They are usually glad to "marry off" a daughter, but pick all kinds of flaws in the prospective daughter-in-law. I rather imagine when the time comes, your son will choose for himself—surely at 30 he is to be trusted to do it without any assistance. Also, let me disabuse your mind of that awful bugbear, "the girl who works." Usually, a woman who has brains enough to hold down a responsible position, in competition with men, has intelligence sufficient to take a cook-book and evolve a fairly respectable meal from it. It is also probable that her work will be systematized more than that of the usual household. If businesses were run, with the sleek management of most homes, they would soon be bankrupt.

SOCIETY

A wedding of much interest to many friends of the contracting parties in Southern Ohio and Eastern Kentucky occurred at Ashland, Kentucky, at half after two o'clock Saturday afternoon, when Dr. Samuel P. Fetter, of Portsmouth, and Mrs. Alice M. Mayo, of Paintsville, Ky., were united in marriage. The ceremony was a very quiet one, being attended only by a few close relatives of Mrs. Mayo, and took place at the home of her aunt in Ashland, Mrs. C. M. Preston. Rev. Mr. Slaughter, of the Methodist church at Ashland, who had formerly been pastor of Mrs. Mayo's church at Paintsville, officiated. Immediately following the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Fetter left over the C. & O. Big Sandy division for Paintsville, Ky., where they expect to spend some days at the beautiful Mayo home and later are planning a trip East and South.

The marriage was the culmination of a pretty romance that had its inception at Palm Beach, Florida, last winter. Dr. Fetter had gone South for the winter to recuperate from his long illness, and there met Mrs. Mayo, who was also spending the winter at the resort. From the first the attraction was mutual and when the party came North following the close of the season it was an open secret among their friends that they were engaged and that their marriage would be an event of the early fall.

The hundreds of friends of Mrs. Mayo and Dr. Fetter in Portsmouth will extend their warmest congratulations and good wishes for a happy married life. Mrs. Mayo is a most attractive woman, with a pleasing and gracious personality that wins her friends everywhere. Her home has been in Paintsville, Ky., where her deceased husband, the late Hon. John C. Mayo, had extensive property interests, but she has spent most of her time in the South and in the East. Dr. Fetter is one of the most popular and best known young men in Portsmouth. Coming here a few years ago from Gallipolis where he had been assistant superintendent at the Ohio Hospital for Epileptics, he at once won a warm place in the hearts of the citizens of his new home. He built up an extensive and lucrative practice. Two years ago he suffered a protracted illness, his life for a long time hanging in the balance, but his good constitution finally pulled him through. As stated before, he spent last winter in Florida and while there he became acquainted with his future bride. In extending congratulations to his many friends here regret that he will cease to become a resident of this city.

Ashland, Ky., Sept. 23, 1916. (Special To The Times)—Prior to the marriage Saturday of Mrs. John C. Mayo, of Paintsville, Ky., to Dr. Samuel P. Fetter, of Portsmouth, Ohio, Mrs. Mayo made disposition of much of the property she inherited, without reservation, from Colonel Mayo. She incorporated the coal and iron holdings left to Col. Mayo as the John C. Mayo Co. Fifty percent of the stock in this company was transferred, in trust, to John C. Mayo, Jr., and Margaret Mayo, children of her first husband. The stock is to be a family fund to give them for the future.

of the children, the trustees being Mrs. Mayo herself, Dr. S. P. Fetter, Dr. J. W. M. Stewart, of Ashland, Ky., and E. M. Conley, of Louisville, Ky. No estimate was placed upon the value of the estate, but it is known to reach into several millions of dollars.

The wedding of Dr. and Mrs. Fetter took place at the home of Postmaster and Mrs. Preston, relatives of Mrs. Mayo. The wedding march was played by Rogers Preston, violin, and Mrs. Bradford, piano. Mrs. Mayo wore an exquisite gown, of Fall tint and was most attractive as she entered the drawing-room of the Preston home upon the arm of Mr. Preston. Immediately after the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Fetter left for Paintsville, Ky., where it was stated, they would make their future home. Mrs. Mayo is one of the best known of Eastern Kentucky women and thousands of friends wish her and her husband every happiness.

Bad weather Friday evening cut down the attendance at the business and social session of the Second Presbyterian Christian Endeavor meeting held at the home of Miss Mary Carlyle, 1312 Second street. It was the first monthly meeting of the year, a plan being decided on recently to hold a business and social session once each month, the meetings being a part of the C. E. Efficiency Chart Plan.

At the business session members pledged $10 per year for State C. E. work. The money will be raised at the C. E. meeting on Sunday evening, October 8th. Ten dollars was also pledged for the support of a foreign missionary. The social committee reported that plans are already being made for the October meeting which will be held in the basement of the church. The meeting will be held at the time of the C. E. mass meeting, the last Tuesday in October. Other committees reported plans laid for increased work this new year.

After the business session the members enjoyed games and piano music, after which refreshments of pimiento sandwiches, pickles and coffee were served.

reports that definite proposals have been made to the entente, acceptance of which will insure the entry of Greece into the war.

Former Premier Venizelos, strong partisan of the entente is quoted as declaring that if the government does not act, the nation itself must defend its own interests. The revolutionary movement is reported spreading but a mutiny on one of the ships of the Greek navy, the armored cruiser Averoff is declared to have been quelled.

Allies Claim
Mackensen Retreating
Rome, Sept. 23.—(Via London)—The retreat of the German army under Field Marshal Von Mackensen in the Rumanian province of Dobruja is reported in a telegram received by the wireless press today from Switzerland. The Danube fortress of Silistra recently captured by the Germans and Bulgarians is said to have been abandoned to the Russian and Rumanian forces.

Germans Launch Gas Attacks

Petrograd, Sept. 23.—(Via London)—German troops in the region of Lake Narocz, on the northern end of the Russian line, launched a gas attack lasting two hours yesterday and in the intervals between the gas waves dense columns of Teuton troops advanced against the Russian positions, says the Russian official statement issued today. The attacking forces, the statement adds, were driven back each time.

Mackensen's Forces Attacked
Berlin, Sept. 23.—(Via London)—Russian and Rumanian troops in Dobruja have been attacking Field Marshal Von Mackensen's forces on both flanks of the battle line, according to war office announcement today. The attacks on the southwest of Topral Sari, fourteen miles southwest of Constantza, were repulsed. North of the river Somme the battle between Anglo-French and troops commanded by Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria was resumed yesterday, says today's German official statement. The French attacked the Combles-Rancourt line and the British attempted to advance near Courcellette the statement adds.

French On the Outskirts of Comblés
Paris, Sept. 23.—North of the Somme, in the outskirts of Comblés, the French forces today captured a strongly defended house from the Germans and took 100 men prisoner, three of them being officers, according to the official communication issued last night. Elsewhere on the front there were only minor engagements.

The Germans taken prisoner in the Somme front by the French and British from July 1 to September 18 number more than 35,800, of whom 34,000 were taken by the French.

Mackensen Carrying Out Daring Plan
Budapest, Sept. 23.—The wave of indignation which swept through Hungary when it became known that the Hungarian frontier had practically been left defenseless against the Rumanians while Field Marshal von Mackensen collected a great army in northeastern Bulgaria for a drive through Dobruja, is quickly subsiding, as the public begins to understand the plans of the daring German strategist.

From what has become known it appears that Mackensen intends to drive the Rumanian and Russian forces which were to invade Bulgaria from Dobruja north into the enormous swamps of the Danube Delta between Galatz and the Black Sea.

If he succeeds, he will probably strike across the Danube from Rusehuk, Tutrahan and Silistria, attack Bucharest and try to smash his way north on the western bank of the Danube to Braila and Galatz.

In the meantime, the Rumanian invaders in Transylvania are to be held as much as possible, until sufficient forces can be collected for a successful dash through the narrowest part of Rumania towards Galatz. This stroke, if successful, would not only cut the Rumanian army in two and put Rumania practically out of the war, but it would also shorten the lines of the Teutonic allies immensely, bringing them at the same time to the southern frontier of Bessarabia and compelling a retreat of the Russians from Galicia.

The plan of Mackensen is undoubtedly the most daring of the war. But military experts here believe he would not have started on his venturesome march to the north if he feared serious danger to Bulgaria and the Orient railroads from the offensive of the allies at Saloniki. In his operations he seems to rely principally on Turkish troops, which are said to be available in large numbers and can be moved through quickly.

Greece Sends Proposals To Allies
Athens, Sept. 21.—(Via London)—(Delayed)—The Greek government is said on the best authority to have telegraphed definite proposals to the entente capitals which, if accepted, will mean Greece's entry into the war. If the uncertainty of the relations between Greece and the entente continues, it is regarded as not improbable that Greece may declare war on Bulgaria on her own account.

Semi-official efforts of the cabinet to ascertain from the entente ministers here a statement as to the desires of the allied governments have been fruitless. The ministers were given to understand that as many as three members of the Greek cabinet were ready to resign if the entente wished. The sole reply was that instructions had not been received.

Portuguese Invade German East Africa
Lisbon.—(Via Paris)—Sept. 23.—An extensive invasion of German East Africa by Portuguese troops is reported in an official statement issued by the war office.

and royal family attended the swearing in of the new recruits. The king pledged them to loyalty and obedience and said "Do not be misled by false patriots who trade out their patriotism." He probably referred to Venizelos on whose home island, Kreta, a rebellion has broken out.

At the opening of the Dutch parliament Queen Wilhelmina of Holland declared that the Netherlands would defend their rights against any one attempting to attack them. Army and fleet were being increased and so were the arms and munition supplies. The defenses of the Dutch West Indies are being strengthened. The government would see to it that the people had enough to eat. This means hands off to Britain and Japan.

As Russia cannot procure a new foreign loan in either England, France or the United States the raising of 3000 million rubles for war purposes by a Rome loan is to be tried.

Germany has called for the same financial concessions from Switzerland that the latter has granted to the French business world the subscription of 50 million francs to the new German war loan. Germany has been a heavy war buyer in Switzerland. Under British pressure the latter laid an embargo on exports to Germany whereupon the German government threatened with retaliation, a counter embargo on iron, etc. Then Switzerland dared London to do its worst and now everything is lovely again between Bern and Berlin.

A son of the British prime minister Asquith has been killed on the Somme and a nephew of the German Emperor, son of his sister Margarethe, Duchess of Hesse in the Balkans.

By record of the department of commerce our export to the Allies' countries in the last twelve months amounted to three and one-half billion dollars that to Germany to only $288,851.

The German war office claims that in August German armies have brought down 78 Anglo-French flyers and lost 17 machines.

The French government has taken control of meat, flour, sugar and coal distribution. Living expenses have doubled in France.

Runners have it that there is another German raider in the Atlantic.

Winter weather has set in in the Carpathians which will make military operations there difficult.

Daily Mail of London lets out a big wall over the inability of the war office to get sufficient recruits. She insists upon conscription in Ireland, more stringent enlistment measures and increase of the service age from 40 to 50 years.

Meat prices have been reduced in Berlin.

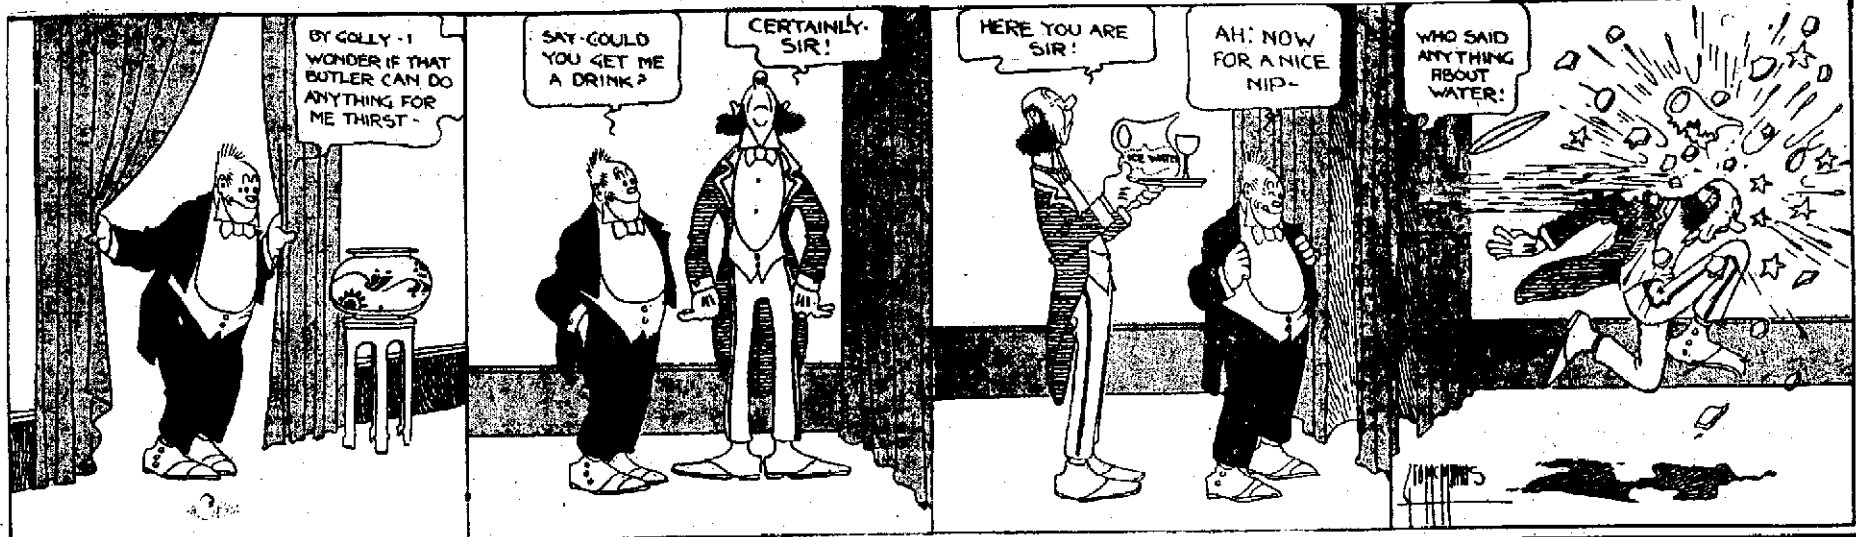

Swiss papers assert that the German government intends to expatriate 10,000 Italian field-workers in retaliation for maltreatment of Germans in Italy.

The Swiss government has levied a warprofit tax of 25 per cent to meet increased expenses for army purposes.

Local German's View Of European War

(Written by Louis F. Korth, former Editor of The Correspondent.)

Friday, September 22, 1916. Although the grand push of the British-French from the Somme to the Rhine only has reached the crest of the ridge which kept them all summer from the first 10 miles station on their 44 miles route their claim is not to be denied that in the late battle they have accomplished more than in their whole drive so far. It has carried the British to Concellette, Martinpuich and Fiers on or near the Albert road within four miles of Bapaume, while the French have gained new ground toward Comblès north of the river and to Chaulnes south of it.

In their main object, however, to get into the rear of the Germans and cut off the forces in the Ginchy-Comblès salient the Allies have failed. The Germans held the fort. They repulsed half a dozen ferocious attacks of the British from Ginchy in the Bouleaux Woods and remained in possession of the road to Morval on which they can withdraw to the north if necessary. As long as they have Comblès they prevent the British and French from joining forces on a common straight front to surround them. Both continue their pressure on Comblès and as the Germans are hemmed in on the salient their withdrawal out of a dangerous to a safer position would not be surprising.

By late accounts there is a lull in the battle, caused by the weather, as London says, but just as likely by the necessity of re-cooping and reorganizing. It has been demonstrated that even with as many divisions again as Joffre and Haig did put in at the start, Berlin says forty instead of twenty, they could not push through to Bapaume but had to stop half way.

The British and French commanders drew so heavy on their reserves and their onslaughts on the German positions were so fierce that it can only be explained by General Haig's determination to break through at any cost this time and avoid a dreaded third winter campaign. He has had enormous losses and every new effort increases them and decreases his strength which is by no means inexhaustible. What he cuts off from the German front is made good in the rear. Only if the Allies succeed in crushing the German lines by one full sloop, roll them up and rout the Princes will their grand rush count for anything. The German iron wall may be deformed by another dozen shocks but every dent can be straightened. And attrition is a long, long, wearisome job and a game at which two can play. So far the Allies have made ten miles in four hundred to Cologne since July. How many men will they have left at the finish? This is the reasoning of a neutral critic.

Last Sunday the Germans started their counter attacks and recovered part of the Martinpuich-Fiers trench sector. New attacks of the British at Thiépval and Comblès, which remained in German hands, were beaten off, as were French attacks from the direction of Clerf.

From Russian military sources it is learned that General Brusilov had to wait with his offensive to bring relief to Italy beyond the time set for it. Russia could not get the reserves west of the Ural and had to go to Asia for them. He lost a month.

"His strength has been exaggerated," Berlin says. "The enormous losses during the summer campaign and lately again on the Stokked, Lipn, Sereth and in the Carpathians will make themselves felt when he has to defend the territory which he overran last June."

There is a change in the situation already. The Russians tried again on Sunday by force majeure to break Linington's lines on General Marwitz's 20 miles front at Zaturse, between Lutsk and Vladimir in Volhynia. They put in eight full divisions, among them the guards, but were badly beaten, 31 officers, 2,511 men and 17 machine guns were captured.

The next day the Germans turned tables on them and took the offensive themselves. Berlin reports "General Bernhardt's troops stormed a strong Russian bridgehead at Zarozze, northeast of Kovel, and drove the enemy across the river. Over 2000 prisoners and a number of guns fell into our hands."

The same report says: "On the Narvanjovka, an arm of the Lipn, General Gerek of Bothmers' command foiled new attempts of the Russians on Halicz by successful counter attacks, also an offensive, on both banks of the river. He took 4200 prisoners, 4 field and 16 machine guns. An attack on General V. Ebers' positions north of Zborow, Verholis Brody-Lemberg front, also was repulsed."

About the Turkish corps, which is now active in Galicia, Constantinople says: "Our troops repulsed violent attacks which the enemy made uninterruptedly for 48 hours with superior forces. They maintained their positions and captured 600 Russians."

In the Galicia Carpathians the Russians are developing much activity around the Kirilbaba pass again.

Russian and Rumanian troops now co-operate in Southern Bukovina. Quite a Rumanian force has appeared near Kimpolung.

The German-Bulgarian offensive in Eastern Rumania is developing into the most important war feature of the day. Muckensen did not go into it in a haphazard way but from all accounts the campaign was carefully mapped out and prepared for before Rumania's declaration of war already. Austria was surprised by the Rumanian rush into Transylvania but Muckensen had his plans and troops ready to counter it on the other end of the line, in Dobrudja, where by a quick bold stroke he surprised the Russo-Rumanians just as much and blocked them in their intention to strike at Bulgaria and overrun it as they did Transylvania, showing that the Germans have not lost the initiative altogether.

The German war office says in a late report: "The battle of September 12-13 (shortly referred to last week) ended with complete victory for us. The enemy was forced to retreat along the whole line. Our troops pursued him along the Danube to Rachova, engaged his rear guard several times and captured 3060 more prisoners and five more guns. He has taken up a new line from Rachova on the Danube to Tuzla on the Black Sea. (Along the historic Roman Trajan's wall)."

The German-Bulgarian forces are standing now 25 miles north of Dobrich on a line running from Mangalia on the Black Sea via Karanomer to Czernavoda on the Danube, only about ten miles south of the railroad from the Rumanian capital to Kustendje (Constanza).

According to a German official statement stubborn and fluctuating fighting is going on. The Russo-Rumanians have brought up heavy reinforcements and one of the heaviest and bloodiest battles of the war is in progress.

Yesterday the tide seemed to be against the Germans and Bulgars, as Muckensen's tactics and movements had not fully developed, today's Berlin war report reads: "General Muckensen has driven back the enemy in disorder. A great victory was gained by a successful encircling counter attack."

In a summary of the events preceding and leading up to this battle the German staff says: "From prisoners we learn that the Rumanian troops captured at Turtukai were the 15 and 17 divisions, comprising nine full regiments of infantry and two regiments of artillery. Among the prisoners are two colonels and 425 other officers. The commander of the 15th division, General Grigorescu, escaped and the commander of the 17th division, General Todorescu, was drowned."

In German Hungary, Siebenbruggen, as this part of Transylvania is called, the Rumanians tried to reach the railroad to Jermunstadt through the Streit valley south of Heotzing but were driven back by General Stamb beyond Petroseni on the border with the loss of several hundred prisoners and seven guns. Attempts to break through the Iron Gate Pass south of Kirsburg and the Szurduk Pass were frustrated.

Since the first days of their invasion the Rumanians have not gained any further ground. To support the Allies east and west in their offensive General Cadorna started another advance last Saturday along the whole Isonzo front from the Flitscher Klause, the old medieval mountain fastness in the Tolmein coastland, to the Adriatic. His massed attacks were directed this time against Canale, Tolmein, Karfreit and the Ronbon to get to the Goetz-Willich railroad and may be to Laibach and Vienna, but he missed it again. His losses were enormous. On a short front of three miles on the Wippach three of his regiments were decimated by 30 per cent, as General Serorovitz, the Austrian commander, estimates. Vienna says "The Italians keep up their attacks against the Carso plateau to Trieste day and night. On the north front they have ceased after seven different repulses."

On the Saloniki east front where the British had recrossed the Struma they made another diversion into the valley but were driven back by the Bulgarians. On the western (Macedonian) end of the long line the Bulgarians have evacuated Florina, south of Manastir, and taken up a new position on the Kaikmakalon heights, which they have held against the Serbians since last Friday. They now stand where they stood before their advance on Florina. Sofia reports "On the slopes of the plateau we drove the Italians out of four villages where we found a large quantity of war material."

Constantinople has nothing to report this week but a successful surprise attack on the Russians in Southern Armenia, the defeat of British cavalry east of Port Said, where the Turks continue to keep the watch on the canal, and a repulse of British infantry on the Felahie front (Mesopotamia) in an attempt on Turkish positions.

At last poor Greece has found the man to steer the unwieldy ship of state through the breakers or onto them. It is Kriegeropolos. He bears no classic name but classes with the Venezelists and has emphatically denied to be a German sympathizer.

It is rumored in Athens that an ultimatum has been sent to Germany to release the cornered Greek division which on command of the king submitted to the Germans rather than fight them, risking destruction.

Meanwhile Kalag is dickering with the entente for better terms than they are willing to grant. They have to consider Italy and Serbia as well as Greece. Every one of them is out for a land grab.

BOTH FIGHTERS ARE IN GREAT SHAPE FOR MONDAY NIGHT BOUT

Fans Of The Peerless Eagerly Await The Gong; Large Crowd Expected

Jack Perry and Roy Click, who will battle ten rounds at Distel's Hall, seventh and Chillicothe streets, are expected to arrive in the city Sunday noon.

Promoter Charles Kieglar has everything in readiness for the big attraction that in point of talent, will far outshine any similar event ever held in the Peerless City. Perry and Click will fight at close to the 145 pound mark, and the fans who are present will see two of the world's foremost welter weights in action when these two lads exchange greetings in the way of uppercuts and haymakers. They have trained faithfully and well and will be able to stand up under an avalanche of blows. This fight is a guaranteed attraction. Promoter Kieglar sends word that he is standing four square behind this battle, and that he personally guarantees that the scrap will be the greatest ever given in this city.

There is no love between the two gladiators and when they see the mark watch out for the fireworks. Click is a fighter of the rushing quality and he will probably go right after his more experienced opponent from the clang of the gong. Perry states that should Click want to make a rushing fight it will suit him to a nicety. He thrives on fighting and is a veritable whirlwind in close quarters. Each fighter realizes that his future depends upon the outcome and of course each will do his best to win. Both lads are the possessors of a mighty wallop, which should land in the proper place will carry sufficient steam to start the bees to buzzing and the golden rod to topple.

Promoter Kieglar states that the two fighters will be subjected to a rigid physical examination before they enter the ring. Mr. Kieglar is a strict disciplinarian when it comes to living up to the letter of the law and he states that this fight will be conducted along orderly lines. Women are invited, for Mr. Kieglar will assure the gentler sex that nothing will occur to mar their finer sensibilities.

The admission to the big attraction will be placed at 50 cents and $1.00. This should enable every fan in the city to be present. In addition to the main bout of ten rounds, two preliminaries will be staged. Tickets for the fight may be secured at the Smoke House or Play House. Doors will open promptly at 7:30 o'clock and the first bout will start at 8 o'clock.

Game At Park

The Steel Plant nine will play the Athletics at Millbrook Park Sunday afternoon. This will be the third game of a series, each team having won one game. The Athletics won a fifteen inning battle 2 to 1 and the Steel Plant won by the score of 4 to 2. This final game is expected to be for "blood." Lewis and Padan will work for the Steel Plant and Wikoff and Carver will form the battery for the Athletics.

And Mr. Speaker Says Goodbye To Ty Cobb

Chicago, Sept. 23.—Speaker put another point between him and Cobb in the race for the American league batting championship this week and with Cobb's concession of the title may now be reckoned the champion.

It will be the first time since 1906 that any player participating in more than fifty games has ousted Cobb in the American league. The Georgian still leads in stolen bases with 60, against his record of 96 for the whole season last year, and also is in front in number of runs scored with 103, compared with 141 for the whole 1915 season.

Weaver, Chicago, leads in sacrifice hits with 39; Daker of New York has tied his teammate, Pipp, for the home run honors with ten; Jackson, Chicago, is ahead in total bases with 281 and Detroit leads in club batting with 261.

Leading batters who have played in half their teams' games, including Wednesday's:

Speaker, Cleveland .301; Cobb, Detroit, .360; Jackson, Chicago .348; Strunk, Philadelphia .316; Gardner, Boston .312; E. Collins, Chicago .309; Veach, Detroit .301; Sisler, St. Louis .299; Roth, Cleveland .293; Nunnaker, New York .292.

There is real joy in Redland. Those Rhinelanders have taken another from Boston, winning from the Beantons yesterday, 6 to 5 and thereby practically eliminated the Beantown gang as permanent contenders in the National. The score:

Aims Of "Mountain College" Are Outlined At Dinner

A number of representative people of Portsmouth attended a dinner given last night at The Washington Hotel in the interest of Lincoln Memorial University, a mountain college of the South, at Cumberland Gap, Tennessee. Dr. George A. Hubbell, the president of the University, outlined the work of the institution, which was chartered twenty years ago, for the primary purpose of educating the mountain boys and girls of that general region. The college was founded by General O. O. Howard and is now owned and maintained by philanthropic people of the North. With a farm of 875 acres, a beautiful campus in the famous Powell's River valley near the historic Cumberland Gap, an industrial department where many students get training in the mechanical arts and at the same time pay their expenses, this institution in the course of the year enrolls nearly 700 students, the majority of whom could not attend any other college because of their lack of money. At least three-fourths of the students earn all or part of their expenses. In this way, Dr. Hubbell explained, Lincoln Memorial is bringing education within the reach of these hardy mountain people who are deprived of the privilege of a high school or college education.

The work of the institution, as presented by Dr. Hubbell and Charles J. Brady, who has been in the city for several days in the interest of the University, was commended by the men who were present. J. H. Finney, president, and among some of the speakers were P. E. Selby, George D. Selby, W. M.

Briggs, Rev. Lloyd Strecker, Albert F. Marting and E. J. Marting. Two former graduates of the school, William E. Fine and Robert J. Kincaid, told of their experiences and how they earned their way through school. The endorsement of the work of the institution was given by every person present.

Do You Recall

the time you went to a very rough DENTIST, one who wasn't a bit careful about not hurting you—and my goodness how he did hurt. That made you think that all dentistry was painful and that is where you made a mistake.

Suppose you lay aside this fear now and come to us. Let us show you how little pain will be noticed. How gentleness combined with carefulness and the improved methods of dentistry is so nearly painless it is a pleasure to have your teeth attended to.

Come in today and let us show you how very considerate we are of your feelings. One visit is all we ask. You will always be our patient.

WILL DELIVER TWO ABLE SERMONS

At All Saints' church tomorrow the pastor will preach two sermons culminated to be of help to the average man and woman in their attempt to live the Christian life.

His subject at the morning service will be "Love Based Upon Knowledge." While it is true that love transcends knowledge, it is also true that love is built upon the knowledge which it transcends. The sermon at evening will be a brief exposition of the fifth verse of the thirtieth Psalm, "The Morn of Joy After the Night of Sorrow." The sole object of the message from All Saints' pulpit is ever

To make your burden lighter,
 To make your darkness brighter,
 To wipe away your tears,
 To banish all your fears;
 To help you each and every day
 To bravely walk along life's way,
 To conquer each and every foe
 You meet, as through the world you go.

THE BROTHERHOOD AT ALL SAINTS

Yes! We got back to work last Sunday with a good attendance of members including several new men and the largest offering for the work of the Sunday School

The Greatest Saving To Auto Owners "Motor Pep"

The motorist's best friend. Cut down your gas supply—increase your air supply. Air is free. Gas costs money. Greater mileage per gallon; greater power at any speed. Greater speed at all times.

MOTOR-PEP is a gaseous liquid, which when added to gasoline (for which it has a chemical affinity and mixes readily) produces a new and more economical intensified auto fuel.

MOTOR-PEP increases the mileage 40% so therefore reduces the cost of gasoline 40%. With the Motor Pep a gallon of gasoline only costs you 14c.

We have placed this average every low as we will demonstrate; a very careful test was made with the following cars with the results stated:

A Premier car, the mileage was increased 60%.
A Velie car, the mileage was increased 77%.
A Ford car, the mileage was increased 42%.
A Reo car, the mileage was increased 38%.
An Overland car, the mileage was increased 44%.
An E. M. F. car, the mileage was increased 65%.

With the Premier car the gasoline cost was reduced from 23c to 9c per gallon. This is not all Motor-Pep does. It cleans all the carbon out of the cylinders, regardless of how bad they may be and keeps them absolutely clean.

We guarantee Motor-Pep to diminish carbon deposits in your engine; to clean out and keep clean your cylinders and spark plugs; to promote the smooth running of the pistons by keeping the cylinder walls oiled, to reduce overheating, knocking or fouling of spark plugs and prevents the gumming of piston rings.

We guarantee Motor-Pep to increase efficiency by giving greater flexibility on high-gear, in this way reducing the necessity of frequent gear changing. Also to facilitate easier and smoother starting of engine.

We promise that "Motor-Pep" will promote more comfort and pleasure, because of better control, ease and quickness of starting and the INTENSE POWER for negotiating mud, sand and steep hill climbing.

We guarantee that there is nothing in "Motor-Pep" in the slightest degree harmful to metals with which it comes in contact. It is absolutely free from picric acid, ether or other chemicals which are injurious to machinery. Motor-Pep comes as follows:

4 ounces to intensify 10 gallon of gasoline.
8 ounces to intensify 20 gallon of gasoline.
16 ounces to intensify 40 gallon of gasoline.
1 gallon to intensify 320 gallon of gasoline.

We sell nothing that we do not use ourselves. Every auto and truck we operate uses Motor-Pep. We were not satisfied with tests and reports from our customers. We made Motor-Pep prove to us that it would back up every claim made for it. Upon this basis and this alone would we think of offering it to our customers. We adopt the "Safety First" policy in connection with every transaction we have. It is easier to get and keep customers when satisfied than to win them back if once dissatisfied.

LUBRICATING OIL

The most important thing about the running of your auto is in the lubricating oil that you use. The best that money can buy is the cheapest in every case. Don't look at price but at the quality. The old saying—the best is none too good is certainly the case with auto oils.

Our Power Speedy auto oil is known all over the United States and Canada as being as near perfect as it is possible to make it.

A record of only 2 quarts for 1000 miles was made with our "Power Speedy" auto oil by Mr. Gagnier in a Cadillac Eight. Mr. Gagnier is one of the best known business men in Detroit, Mich.

Not a single fault says Mr. Cannon, manager of a large Detroit concern. Neither one of these men are interested in the Power Lubricating Co.

All our auto oils are refined from the most expensive grade of Pennsylvania crude from which the best oil on earth is made. Our auto oils are as near non-carbon oils as it is possible to produce and still retain the maximum amount of lubricating qualities.

FORD OIL

Our Ford oil is known all over the world—the Ford factories and all their agencies use it and recommend it to all who Ford. There has nothing ever been made to equal it for a Ford car.

We have an oil for every piece of machinery made. WE LUBRICATE THEM ALL. We also have a complete line of cup lubricants and greases second to none. A dozen or more of the best specialties on the market.

Paints and varnishes that have been tested for 40 years and proven to be as good as money can buy.

PATCHET ROOF CEMENT

Last but not least this is one of the best things ever put on the market by anyone. "Patchet Roofing Cement" is manufactured by the Homestead Paint and Varnish Co. of Detroit, Mich., which is controlled by the Power Lubricating Co. It is an asbestos fibric roofing cement. It will stop any leak or make an old roof as good as new—can be used on almost any kind of old roof—when it is wet or dry, warm or cold.

Heat or cold has no effect on "Patchet Roof Cement", can be left open the year around, does not evaporate or get hard. Expands and contracts according to conditions of the weather and material on which it is applied.

Does not set hard enough to become brittle which prevents cracking and chipping.

In buying "Patchet Roof Cement" you make 46% on your investment. "An ounce of proof is worth a bushel of claims." Read the comparison below. The figures tell the story. For example:

Take a roof containing 20 squares the cost of cedar or cypress at $3.75 per square is ..... $75.00
Per square for laying shingles ..... $4.00
Cost of nails ..... $ 2.75
Total cost of roof ..... $117.75
Cost of "Patchet" 8c per pound, 700 lbs. for 20 squares $56.00
Cost of applying "Patchet" 40c per sq. 20 sqs. .... $ 8.00
Cost of roof made with "Patchet" ..... $64.00

Total saving or 46% profit on the investment ..... $53.75
This is sold with a GUARANTEE for TEN YEARS.

GUARANTEE

We guarantee our cement to waterproof the roof to which it is applied for ten years from the date of application and we hereby agree to furnish sufficient cement to keep same roof in good condition without additional charge, should it be required because of the failure due to the cement. Absolute satisfaction guaranteed.

The Head of Every Family

Is paying for a home. If he is living in a rented house, he is paying for his landlord's house, and when he has it paid for, it still belongs to the landlord, and he starts right in paying for it a second time.

When he adopts the ROYAL DEFINITE CONTRACT LOAN plan and has a home paid for, he owns the house and can quit paying or go on saving his money for some other plan to benefit himself and family.

INTEREST RATE IS REASONABLE

Some people say "I would buy a home but I have not enough to pay cash and the interest is so much." They let the interest scare them. The interest rate is six and seventy-six one-hundredths per cent. The renter pays this to his landlord and a profit besides.

SAVE THIS PROFIT FOR YOURSELF

Why, some people are buying houses through the Royal and letting the renter pay for them. They bring the rent to pay the payments on the loan.

Are you going to keep on buying the landlord's house or are you going to pay for a home of your own.

Come and see us. We will help you get your own home.

Chief Prepares Article On Fire Prevention Day

The first of a series of articles on Fire Prevention to be published before Fire Prevention Day, which is to be observed throughout the state on October 8, has been completed by Fire Chief George L. Koerner.

These articles, Chief Koerner explained Saturday, will deal exclusively with the cause of fire and how to prevent them. He expressed his appreciation for the hearty co-operation accorded to the department since he assumed the office of fire chief, by the citizens, and requested that every one read the articles.

The first article is: "On October 9, 1871, according to the story which we are told and which we may believe or not, as we see fit, one Mrs. O'Leary went out into the barn to milk a cow, on her little farm, just on the outskirts of the city of Chicago."

"It was far from being light and she carried a lantern, which she placed on the stable floor and then sat down to do her milking. Now what particular devil possessed that cow, does not appear. But at any rate, the cow was moved to kick and the cow's hoof struck the lantern. "The lantern fell over. The oil spilled on the floor, and the city of Chicago was all but wiped off the map by the fire that followed."

"That is the story we are told of the way the Great Chicago fire started. Whether it is true or not, that is how many fires are started. But however it started, the city of Chicago has reasons to remember that day in October. "The movement for Fire Prevention Day was started by the Safety First Federation of America. Last year the governors of twenty-nine states issued proclamations calling upon their people to observe the day by cleaning up their homes; by removing rubbish from dark corners and by seeing that they were prepared to meet a fire when it came."

"We are well pleased with the manner in which the boys are turning out," declared John F. Eckhart, chairman of the Scioto County Republican Executive committee, Friday evening, at the conclusion of an enthusiastic meeting held at the Republican club rooms, Gallia street. "We are going to put a Republican ticket over in the fall election."

Speeches in various parts of the county will be made during the last three weeks of the campaign, which is planned to be a fast and furious one.

A poll of the county precincts is now being conducted. It will be completed just as soon as possible and the results mailed to the Republican State Executive committee, Columbus.

Senator Warren G. Harding and Hon. Myron T. Herriek, Republican U. S. Senatorial nominee, will speak.

Committees to be in charge of the various work during the coming campaign were named. They are: Finance Committee—Dr. P. W. Young, chairman; Andrew Glass, Dr. F. H. Williams, George W. Sheppard.

Each nominee on the county ticket gave a short talk in which suggestions were offered for strengthening the Republican campaign in the county.

In a short talk Mayor H. H. Kaps called attention to the petition which had been filed with the New Boston council, asking for the annexation of the village of New Boston to Portsmouth. The mayor said that this question would be submitted to the people of New Boston and Portsmouth at the coming election. In concluding, he declared that he was confident that the measure would carry.

SWATTING AT A TANGENT

It would seem the wise thing for Candidate Hughes to at least co-ordinate with his supporters, who he expects to do the mightiest things in bringing about his election. But so eager and incessant is he in his swat-the-fly campaign, that he entirely overlooks this most essential point. Thus it comes that he finds himself in direct contradiction of his friend and champion, Henry C. Frick, president of the United States Steel corporation, the company the world knows. Candidate Hughes says we had no prosperity under Democratic free trade, until the war brought on an abnormal demand and whenever the war ends then is American industry and trade to collapse and enter the slough of despond. Mr. Frick holds quite the contrary. He thinks things were modestly prosperous before the war and he does not at all share in the view that with the end of the war all will end. But that there may be no misapprehension and misjudgment of his opinion let us quote his own exact words: "While the present excessive prosperity in this country may be, to some extent, dependent upon the war, I believe that conditions will continue good. The domestic demand for steel and other industrial products is very encouraging. All in all, the financial, the industrial and the general situation is just splendid; we could not wish for better."

When Mr. Frick says "we could not wish for better" then we realize how far he and Candidate Hughes, whom he is going to vote for, are apart. Certainly, if the iron master felt the unprecedented development of the iron trade was resultant of the war and was going to be brought to sudden and complete pause by the termination of the struggle then it would not be a situation of which he could not wish the better. We may easily understand how he would be full of real apprehension as Candidate Hughes is of feigned. It is not unreasonable to expect cessation of hostilities would bring general demoralization to business, but this would be only demoralization, not disaster. Naturally it would take time for business to adjust itself to new conditions. For a time it would hesitate and go slow, but since civilization became supreme there never was a war that was not quickly followed by good times and it is going to be so with this war, except the times will be better than ever known because there was never a war of equal extent and destruction with this.

KINGSTON SHOWS THE WAY

"One of the most pleasing features of the 1916 Fall Festival was the attendance of the Kingston Groundhog club on Wednesday night and its participation in the fraternal parade. The Groundhog club is an old institution, maintained solely for its pleasant social features, and its membership comprises many of the best citizens of Kingston and Green township. Its attendance in such large numbers was a compliment to Chillicothe and the applause which greeted the delegation showed that its action was appreciated."

"It was, above all, an evidence of a willingness on the part of Kingston and Green township to cultivate more intimate relations with Chillicothe, an example of co-operation which spells benefit to both, in more ways than mere commercial interchange. It was an action which should be reciprocated in kind. It meant a great deal of work on the part of the organizers of the delegation to secure such a large attendance, two hundred and seventy-one being the number that came down from the pretty town up the line, and they deserve the thanks of the festival committee and of the people of Chillicothe."

"There is no reason why such occurrences should not be frequent, Chillicothe going out to the events held in various sections of the county and the county coming to Chillicothe. There should be more friendly visiting, not merely business relations, but real social interchange. By this means the people of all sections may be brought into closer touch with each other and out of these friendly feelings will inevitably grow a spirit of united action, of concerted movement, a unity of interest which cannot fail to work to the advantage of the whole county."

We find the above in the Chillicothe News-Advertiser. We approve it and we like the action which inspired its utterance. There is no reason why any sort of ill will should exist between town and country, to hold it is foolish and harmful. The two divisions have all in common and nothing in opposition. The better the town, the better the country and nothing between them is better than good will. Telephones, better roads, interurbans and automobiles are drawing them closer together in fellowship inevitably and nothing will hasten this desirable consummation so quickly as the display of interest on the part of one in the undertakings of the other. Recently Portsmouth citizens gave a wholesome exhibit of the better spirit that seems to be spreading over southern Ohio by laying aside their affairs and attending in large number a grange picnic. Next week she will hold a Korn Carnival and on the program is an agricultural parade. It would be a mighty fine thing if her country friends would reciprocate by entering heartily into the affair and making it one of the biggest features of the week. It isn't necessary to remind them that Portsmouth is a good market town, in fact, has the reputation of being the best in the state. Her growth is a matter of direct personal interest to them, but what her growth shall be depends upon her demonstrated ability to do things in the right way. Everyone, almost, can do something to help her in the right way.

There is always something to make us weep. Ohio's onion crop is six times larger this year than last.

DAYS THAT STICK IN THE MEMORY

AUTOMOBILE STEALING

There are too many automobile thefts by boys and young men who are out for a good time. It seems to be thought a smart thing to take the machines from the places on the street where they have been left by their owners and go off for a joy ride, usually ending in a smashup. Careless of the loss to the owner and of the danger to themselves and others, these young men go speeding through the streets bent on having a time which nobody in his right mind would term good.

When this business began, there was a disposition to be lenient with the young fellows and let them off with a reprimand and such arrangement for repairing the damage as it was possible to make. There was a proper desire not to ruin the lives of these sowers of wild oats by sending them to prison. But the policy of leniency is not working altogether as it should. The auto stealing goes on, the joy riding continues, with its menace to the life and limb of others, who are using the streets, as well its wrecking of valuable machines. What is to be done? Something, certainly, that will adequately impress these scapegraces with the seriousness of their offense and act as a deterrent on others who may be tempted to follow their evil example. If judicial leniency will not avail, some genuine punishment will have to be employed. The business must be stopped, for the sake of all concerned—the offenders themselves as well as the persons whose property they destroy and those others whose lives they endanger.—Columbus Dispatch.

This utter devastation the Democratic free trade is working with the iron trade must be stopped. United States Steel company sold, yesterday, at above $110. In the glorious days, when our American industries were protected by an American tariff it sometimes brought as much as $8.

The G. O. P.—the Grand Old Party some bright fellow in Pittsburgh, yes, in Pittsburgh, think of that—interprets it—is having troubles of its own and a plenty. ## Mother Beaver's New Idea

OF COURSE FATHER BEAVER was glad to see Mother Beaver safely back from wherever she had been. Oh, yes, of course. But just the same, he was provoked. You know how it is when you get all worked up and ready to be real brave and fine and then, all of a sudden, you find there's nothing to be brave about. You feel like a balloon with all the gas out. That's just the way Father Beaver felt. And he didn't like feeling that way.

"Aren't you going to tell us where you went?" he said; real cross he was, too.

"Dear me, no," laughed Mother Beaver good-naturedly. "I hadn't even thought of telling. I was just tending to a little business of my own. You wouldn't be interested just yet, Father Beaver. At first I must not worry so about me, I'll be very careful about danger. Now let's see, you were going to start building. Can I help?"

How Father Beaver did stare. Was that Mother Beaver talking? Really? He hardly believed his ears. Why Mother Beaver had always been afraid to go anywhere alone. This Wigwagskaken country was surely making her brave! But then, she seemed to be all right, so he decided he wouldn't say anything more just then. He would go on about his work and see if anything else happened. So he started over toward the tree he meant to gnaw down for rearing the dam.

All this while Bushy was nearly bursting with curiosity. He wanted to know why his mother wouldn't tell all about her party. (Now that just shows how little he knew about parties, doesn't it? Of course she wouldn't tell, she wanted to surprise him!) And he wanted to know what Pukeman Billy had to do with it. For Pukeman Billy stood there with that same knowing look that Mikey had noticed, and he didn't say a word. Bushy was old enough to know that when folks don't talk it usually means they know plenty to say.

Father Beaver started his gnawing at the tree trunk, Mikey Muskrat slipped away into the creek, and then, all of a sudden, he found himself bow and said, "Well, I guess I'll be going on."

Father Beaver started his gnawing at the tree trunk, Mikey Muskrat slipped away into the creek.

"Oh, dear," thought Bushy, "there's not going to be another thing happen to-night!"

But he was mistaken. Mother Beaver didn't go over to help Father Beaver as soon as Bushy had thought she would. She stayed behind and whispered to Bushy and Little Brother. "Yes, the party'll be by the sycamore tree and I'm going to have berries and tender roots and, what do you suppose? Honey! Yes, sir, Bushy Beaver! Honey! And I've just thought of something else, but I don't know how I'm going to get it. I'm going to have dishes—nice, pretty dishes with flowers on them. I am." And then Mother Beaver ran over to help Father Beaver and Bushy and Little Brother just started with surprise. Dishes! Dear me!

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Sept. 23.—If Fritz Schlapper, constable of Woodmont, had not schlaopped the hand of the law upon Hortense Louise, a full-blooded and voiced Holstein cow belonging to Mrs. Walter H. Bradley, dear knows what the residents of the summer colony would have done for amusement.

However, Schlapper arrested Hortense and the season has been both noisy and absorbing. The bus of the entire difficulty seems to be that Hortense, despite her name, is a powerful barytone. Her "moo" on a clear day can be easily heard in Bridgeport. After Mrs. Bradley had pastured the siren in the centre of the colony for a month, complaints could be heard in Toledo.

Finally a complaint was filed and Fritz Schlapper, the inimitable cow despot, placed Hortense Louise formally in the toils. The court verdict was that Hortense would be welcome in Woodmont only in the form of raw meat, properly dischilled and free of the soul-racking "moo."

As a matter of fact it was claimed that the noise was only Hortense singing. "Where is My Wandering Calf Tonight?" But the complainants declared that if Hortense was merely calling her young, the young must have been removed to Asia Minor.

George Rector was standing in front of Rector's the other evening, airing his jet black mustache and watching the home-going Manhattanese. Sweeping down Broadway came a group of about the prettiest girls George has seen since the opening night of the Follies.

There was nothing about them

After a prayerful reading of West Virginia papers we reach the pious conclusion that though gross and corrupt frauds were admittedly committed in Mingo counties, it is a sin and a shame to suppose anybody committed them and an unpardonable crime for government officials to assume any such infamous possibility, as that somebody, especially members of the party that was the beneficiary of the evil practices, committed them. Just to settle the matter, we moved that it be agreed the wicked Democrats perpetrated them against themselves just so they might have something to kick about.

They'll say anything when they get warmed up to the campaign a bit. Here's the Ohio G. O. P. organs singing in unison praises of "His Splendid Record as Governor." Guess whom they mean. No, it can't be Myron T. Herrick! Yes, but it is he and not our good young governor.

Four of Sing Sing's "honor men" shipped out in one day and the up-lifters are wondering where in the world the damaged human units can be. May be we will have to agree with a contemporary that the uplift system is all right, the trouble is with those whom it would uplift.

The Bachelor's Paradise

Free as the birds and a lucky old boy!
Handsome and rich and a fountain of joy.
Sugar and lots of spice!
Who could resist if the gods should decree
Something so jolly for you and for me—
A bachelor's paradise!

Nothing to fret or to worry about!
Cash coming in and not much going out;
Always enough and to spare;
No one at home to know how it was spent,
No little rowdy to beg for a cent,
And nobody bothers to care!

Nothing to do at the close of the day,
Nobody asks him to hurry away,
Home to the same old shack!
No little sleepy heads watching the gate,
Nobody wonders what keeps him so late,
Or cares if he ever comes back!

Matrons and maids are awaiting the smile,
Sparkle and music, and dance to beguile.
Everything natty and trim!
No little tangle-heads cuddled down tight,
No little woman to whisper good-night—
Nothing like that for him!

Nothing to trouble him all the night long,
Monarch of all and his life like a song,
Easy and comfy, and nice!
No little bear hug, and no morning kiss,
No little nuisance and no little bliss,
Not in his paradise!

UNIONS VOTING ON QUESTION OF GENERAL WALKOUT

New York, Sept. 23.—Trade unions in this city and Westchester county today began to vote on the question of ratifying the action of eighty delegates who yesterday called for a "general suspension of work" next Wednesday morning. The labor chiefs appealed to all union wage earners to stay at home until the traction companies make it possible for them to ride in the street cars without offense to their union allegiance.

It is asserted that no such action heretofore has been taken by the trades unions of this city and country, nor has a strike involving so many trades ever been called. Its maximum effect would call from work 750,000 men and women.

Leaders of the movement refrain from calling it a sympathetic strike. They declare that many of the unions already have voted to ratify their recommendation, and that any union man who does not quit work Wednesday will be denounced as a traitor.

It is pointed out that Wednesday is the beginning of an important Jewish holiday when many workers ordinarily would stay at home.

The call for a cessation of work is based on the grievance that men of union affiliations cannot ride to their employment except in cars manned by non-union conductors or motormen and under the protection of the police. Statements issued by the leaders indicate that they are incensed by Mayor Mitchell's warning that he stood ready to use the military power to restrain violence and that they consider the city to be dominated by the traction interests.

To reinforce the police, Commissioner Woods has instructed the captains to select ten civilians in each precinct to be sworn in as special policemen. This would add about 800 men to the department.

GREEK SHIP JOINS REBELS

London, Sept. 23.—A despatch to the Mail from Athens says the Greek armored cruiser Georgio Averof, lying off the Arsenal on the Island of Salamis near Piræus, is preparing to join the revolutionary movement at Saloniki. The government has ordered the remainder of the fleet to prevent the Georgio Averof from reaching Saloniki.

House On Outskirts Of Combles Held By French

Paris, Sept. 23.—North of the Somme, in the outskirts of Combles, the French forces today captured a strongly defended house from the Germans, and took 100 men prisoner, three of them being officers, according to the official communication issued last night. Elsewhere on the front there were only minor engagements.

The Germans taken prisoner in the Somme front by the French and British from July 1 to September 18 number more than 55,800, of whom 34,000 were taken by the French.

FRENCH SUB IS SUNK

Berlin, Sept. 23.—(Wireless to Sayville, N. Y.)—The French submarine Foucault has been sunk in the southern Adriatic by bombs dropped from Austro-Hungarian naval aeroplanes, the Austrian admiralty announced today. The entire crew of 29 men were rescued and made prisoners.

The admiralty statement reads: "An Austro-Hungarian naval aeroplane in the southern Adriatic sank by means of bombs the French submarine Foucault. The aeroplane's pilot was Lieutenant Gelezny and the observer was Lieutenant Von Klumburg.

"The entire crew of the submarine, comprising two officers and 17 men, many of whom were in a drowning condition, were rescued and made prisoners by the naval aeroplane mentioned and by another piloted by Lieutenant Kamjever, with Cadet Severa as observer.

"Half an hour later the imprisoned crew was taken over by a torpedo boat while the two officers were transported to land on naval aeroplanes.

GENERAL MACKENSEN CARRYING OUT DARING PLAN IN THE EAST

Budapest, Sept. 23.—The wave of indignation which swept through Hungary when it became known that the Hungarian frontier had practically been left defenseless against the Rumanians while Field Marshal von Mackensen collected a great army in northeastern Bulgaria for a drive through Dobrudja, is quickly subsiding, as the public begins to understand the plans of the daring German strategist.

From what has become known it appears that Mackensen intends to drive the Rumanian and Russian forces which were to invade Bulgaria from Dobrudja north into the enormous swamps of the Danube Delta between Galatz and the Black Sea.

If he succeeds, he will probably strike across the Danube from Rusehuk, Tutrahan and Silistria attack Bucharest and try to smash his way north on the western bank of the Danube to Braila and Galatz.

In the meantime, the Rumanian invaders in Transylvania are to be held as much as possible, until sufficient forces can be collected for a successful dash through the narrowest part of Rumania to wards Galatz. This stroke, if successful, would not only cut the Rumanian army in two and put Rumania practically out of the war, but it would also shorten the lines of the Teutonic allies immensely, bringing them at the same time to the southern frontier of Bessarabia and compelling a retreat of the Russians from Galicia.

The plan of Mackensen is undoubtedly the most daring of the war. But military experts here believe he would not have started on his venturesome march to the north if he feared serious danger to Bulgaria and the Orient road from the offensive of the allies at Saloniki. In his operation he seems to rely principally on the available in large numbers and Turkish troops, which are said to be moved through quickly.

BEVY OF PRETTY GIRLS ARE TO PIN THE "TAGS"

A bevy of pretty girls will be out the second day of the Greater 1916 Korn Carnival Thursday, Sept. 23, with baskets of paper tags, which they expect to pin on the sterner sex of the city.

The money received from the sale of these tags will be devoted to paying the current expenses of the Scioto County Anti-Tuberculosis League.

There is no fixed charge for the tags. Pay whatever you like. Every penny will be turned over to the League to be used in relieving the suffering of some unfortunate victim of the dread disease.

Each penny accomplishes wonders.

Mrs. George Grimes, chairman of the committee on arrangements for "Tag Day" says that a handsome gold wrist watch will be presented to the young lady collecting the most money during the day.

Superstitious Musicians. Musicians are often singularly superstitious. Paderewski once ordered an expensive apartment in London, but refused to enter when he found it was No. 13 of a certain street, although he did for it. Massenet has written only one opera and many other compositions, but on all of his manuscripts page 12½ is written in place of 13.

What Damp Means. Learn to know what damp means, especially when used upon polished woodwork. Think it means wet and you will be reviling valuable information as "newspaper rubbish." Dip a cloth in hot water, wring it as hard as you can, then shake it in the air, and it should have about the right amount of moisture.—Exchange.

ACCEPTANCE MEANS ENTRANCE OF COUNTRY INTO THE BIG STRUGGLE

Athens, Sept. 21.—(Via London)—(Delayed)—The Greek government is said on the best authority to have telegraphed definite proposals to the entente capitals which, if accepted, will mean Greece's entry into the war. If the uncertainty of the relations between Greece and the entente continues, it is regarded as not improbable that Greece may declare war on Bulgaria on her own account.

Semi-official efforts of the cabinet to ascertain from the entente ministers here a statement as to the desires of the allied governments have been fruitless. The ministers were given to understand that as many as three members of the Greek cabinet were ready to resign if the entente wished. The sole reply was that instructions had not been received.

PORTUGUESE INVADE GERMAN EAST AFRICA

Lisbon—(Via Paris)—Sept. 23.—An extensive invasion of German East Africa by Portuguese troops is reported in an official statement issued by the war office.

Germany declared war on Portugal on March 9 and a month later the Portuguese military in Africa reported that they had occupied Kionga, a port on the border of German and Portuguese East Africa. Since then there have been no reports of any activity by the Portuguese.

SWATTING AT A TANGENT

It would seem the wise thing for Candidate Hughes to at least co-ordinate with his supporters, who he expects to do the mightiest things in bringing about his election. But so eager and incessant is he in his swat-the-fly campaign, that he entirely overlooks this most essential point. Thus it comes that he finds himself in direct contradiction of his friend and champion, Henry C. Frick, president of the United States Steel corporation, the company the world knows. Candidate Hughes says we had no prosperity under Democratic free trade, until the war brought on an abnormal demand and whenever the war ends then is American industry and trade to collapse and enter the slough of despond. Mr. Frick holds quite the contrary. He thinks things were modestly prosperous before the war and he does not at all share in the view that with the end of the war all will end. But that there may be no misapprehension and misjudgment of his opinion let us quote his own exact words: "While the present excessive prosperity in this country may be, to some extent, dependent upon the war, I believe that conditions will continue good. The domestic demand for steel and other industrial products is very encouraging. All in all, the financial, the industrial and the general situation is just splendid; we could not wish for better."

When Mr. Frick says "we could not wish for better" then we realize how far he and Candidate Hughes, whom he is going to vote for, are apart. Certainly, if the iron master felt the unprecedented development of the iron trade was resultant of the war and was going to be brought to sudden and complete pause by the termination of the struggle then it would not be a situation of which he could not wish the better. We may easily understand how he would be full of real apprehension as Candidate Hughes is of feigned. It is not unreasonable to expect cessation of hostilities would bring general demoralization to business, but this would be only demoralization, not disaster. Naturally it would take time for business to adjust itself to new conditions. For a time it would hesitate and go slow, but since civilization became supreme there never was a war that was not quickly followed by good times and it is going to be so with this war, except the times will be better than ever known because there was never a war of equal extent and destruction with this.

KINGSTON SHOWS THE WAY

"One of the most pleasing features of the 1916 Fall Festival was the attendance of the Kingston Groundhog club on Wednesday night and its participation in the fraternal parade. The Groundhog club is an old institution, maintained solely for its pleasant social features, and its membership comprises many of the best citizens of Kingston and Green township. Its attendance in such large numbers was a compliment to Chillicothe and the applause which greeted the delegation showed that its action was appreciated."

"It was, above all, an evidence of a willingness on the part of Kingston and Green township to cultivate more intimate relations with Chillicothe, an example of co-operation which spells benefit to both, in more ways than mere commercial interchange. It was an action which should be reciprocated in kind. It meant a great deal of work on the part of the organizers of the delegation to secure such a large attendance, two hundred and seventy-one being the number that came down from the pretty town up the line, and they deserve the thanks of the festival committee and of the people of Chillicothe."

"There is no reason why such occurrences should not be frequent, Chillicothe going out to the events held in various sections of the county and the county coming to Chillicothe. There should be more friendly visiting, not merely business relations, but real, social interchange. By this means the people of all sections may be brought into closer touch with each other and out of these friendly feelings will inevitably grow a spirit of united action, of concerted movement, a unity of interest which cannot fail to work to the advantage of the whole county."

We find the above in the Chillicothe News-Advertiser. We approve it and we like the action which inspired its utterance. There is no reason why any sort of ill will should exist between town and country, to hold it is foolish and harmful. The two divisions have all in common and nothing in opposition. The better the town, the better the country and nothing between them is better than good will. Telephones, better roads, interurbans and automobiles are drawing them closer together in fellowship inevitably and nothing will hasten this desirable consummation so quickly as the display of interest on the part of one in the undertakings of the other. Recently Portsmouth citizens gave a whole-some exhibit of the better spirit that seems to be spreading over southern Ohio by laying aside their affairs and attending in large number a grange picnic. Next week she will hold a Korn Carnival and on the program is an agricultural parade. It would be a mighty fine thing if her country friends would reciprocate by entering heartily into the affair and making it one of the biggest features of the week. It isn't necessary to remind them that Portsmouth is a good market town, in fact, has the reputation of being the best in the state. Her growth is a matter of direct personal interest to them, but what her growth shall be depends upon her demonstrated ability to do things in the right way. Every one, almost, can do something to help her in the right way.

There is always something to make us weep. Ohio's onion crop is six times larger this year than last.

blase. They were seeing New York and they were not afraid to ask questions, as New Yorkers generally are. One of the most beautiful stepped up to Mr. Rector: "Are ladies allowed in Rector's unescorted?" she asked.

He assured them that they were and personally escorted them to one of the best tables on the lower floor with a good view of the dancers. Around them women were smoking cigarettes, quaffing the succulent high-ball and trying bravely not to be bored to extinction.

The visitors drank lemonade. They were school teachers from Louisiana—young and vivacious—and to them New York was a thrill. After they left, Rector turned to a friend: "Did you notice that they had a better time than any other guests here? Do you know why? Well—because they are genuine. Most girls drink and smoke to be smart or to give the air of being thoroughly metropolitan. These girls would not drink because they have self-respect, and drinking to them is abhorrent."

D. W. Griffith, who has been headlined for the past two weeks as the Master Mind of the Movies, was dining with a group of friends late after the first performance of his film, "Intolerance," the other night at the Majestic.

And he told a story. There was a chorus girl and a follower of the races who married one day when he had cleaned up on a long shot. They took an apartment on The Drive and she developed a yearning for the screen star class. He had money and so he financed a company and called in a scenario writer.

The girl wanted to be an Oriental beauty on the film. She told the scenario hound and he fixed up a play. After it was done he took it around to their mansion so they could read the manuscript. The bride was in Oriental draperies for the occasion and reclined on a divan and the husband was in evening clothes.

The young playwright read his photo play. He waited when he had finished for comment. Finally the girl said indignantly: "It reads pretty good, but it's full of insiduousness." "Now listen dearie," said the husband. "You got the right dope, but I must say there's a mucus in it for a pretty fair yarn."

AUTOMOBILE STEALING

There are too many automobile thefts by boys and young men who are out for a good time. It seems to be thought a smart thing to take the machines from the places on the street where they have been left by their owners and go off for a joy ride, usually ending in a smashup. Careless of the loss to the owner and of the danger to themselves and others, these young men go speeding through the streets bent on having a time which nobody in his right mind would term good.

When this business began, there was a disposition to be lenient with the young fellows and let them off with a reprimand and such arrangement for repairing the damage as it was possible to make. There was a proper desire not to ruin the lives of these sowers of wild oats by sending them to prison. But the policy of leniency is not working altogether as it should. The auto stealing goes on, the joy riding continues, with its menace to the life and limb of others, who are using the streets, as well its wrecking of valuable machines. What is to be done? Something, certainly, that will adequately impress these scapegraces with the seriousness of their offense and act as a deterrent on others who may be tempted to follow their evil example. If judicial leniency will not avail, some genuine punishment will have to be employed. The business must be stopped, for the sake of all concerned—the offenders themselves as well as the persons whose property they destroy and those others whose lives they endanger.—Columbus Dispatch.

Thus utter devastation the Democratic free trade is working with the iron trade must be stopped. United States Steel common sold, yesterday, at above $110. In the glorious days, when our American industries were protected by an American tariff it sometimes brought as much as $8.

The G. O. P.—the Grand Old Party some bright fellow in Pittsburgh, yes, in Pittsburgh, think of that—interprets it—is having troubles of its own and a plenty. As we figure it any paper that thinks it worth while can get the sort of straw vote it would like to have.

We see the chairman of the Democratic state committee, reinforced by our esteemed co-laborer in the cause of the plain people and the promulgation of the brightest and best journal in the valley, is over in New York, telling them Ohio is for Wilson and can neither be bluffed nor bought away. That's all right; it leaves nothing but the counting to do next November.

O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Sept. 23.—If Fritz Schlapper, constable of Woodmont, had not slapped the hand of the juv upon Hortense Louise, a full-blooded and voiced Holstein cow belonging to Mrs. Walter H. Bradley, dear knows what the residents of the summer colony would have done for amusement.

However, Schlapper arrested Hortense and the season has been both noisy and absorbing. The basis of the entire difficulty seems to be that Hortense, despite her name, is a powerful barytone. Her "moo" on a clear day can be easily heard in Bridgeport. After Mrs. Bradley had pastured the siren in the centre of the colony for a month, complaints could be heard in Toledo.

Finally a complaint was filed and Fritz Schlapper, the inimitable cow despot, placed Hortense Louise formally in the toils. The court verdict was that Hortense would be welcome in Woodmont only in the form of raw meat, properly chiselled and freed of the soul-racking "moo."

After a prayerful reading of West Virginia papers we recall the pious conclusion that though gross and corrupt frauds were admittedly committed in Mingo counties, it is a sin and a shame to suppose anybody committed them and an unpardonable crime for government officials to assume any such infamous possibility, as that somebody, especially members of the party that was the beneficiary of the evil practices, committed them. Just to settle the matter, we moved that it be agreed the wicked Democrats perpetrated them against themselves just so they might have something to kick about.

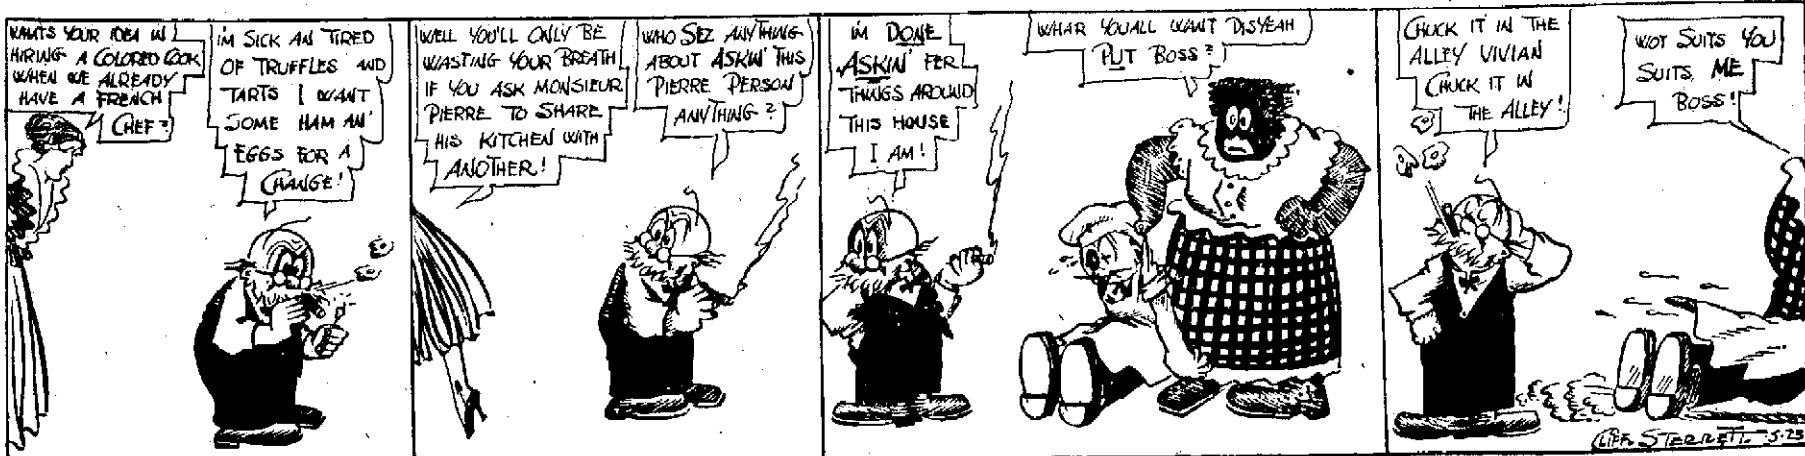

They'll say anything when they get warmed up to the campaign a bit. Here's the Ohio G. O. P. organs singing in unison praises of "His Splendid Record as Governor." Guess whom they mean. No, it can't be Myron T. Herrick! Yes, but it is he and not our good young governor.

Four of King Sing's "honor men" skipped out in one day and the up-lifters are wondering where in the world the damaged human units can be. May he we will have to agree with a contemporary that the uplift system is all right, the trouble is with those whom it would uplift.

The Bachelor's Paradise

Free as the birds and a lucky old boy!

Handsome and rich and a fountain of joy,
Sugar and lots of spice!
Who could resist if the gods should decree
Something so jolly for you and for me—
A bachelor's paradise!

Nothing to fret or to worry about!
Cash coming in and not much going out!
Always enough and to spare;
No one at home to know how it was spent,
No little rowdy to beg for a cent,
And nobody bothers to care!

Nothing to do at the close of the day,
Nobody asks him to hurry away,
Home to the same old shack!
No little sleepy heads watching the gate,
Nobody wonders what keeps him so late,
Or cares if he ever comes back!

Matrons and maids are awaiting the smile,
Sparkle and music, and dance to beguile,
Everything natty and trim!
No little touse-heads cuddled down tight,
No little woman to whisper good-night—
Nothing like that for him!

Nothing to trouble him all the night long,
Monarch of all and his life like a song,
Easy and comfy, and nice!
No little bear-hug, and no morning kiss,
No little nuisance and no little blim,
Not in his paradise!

—September Lippincott.
